Supporting Priests through Prayer

"What is a vocation? It is a gift from God, so it comes from God. If it is a gift from God, our concern must be to know God's will. We must enter that path: if God wants, when God wants, how God wants. Never force the door." — St. Gianna Molla

Saint Charles Borromeo

Feast Day: November 4

Saint Charles Borromeo, patron of seminarians, was a leading voice of internal reform in the Church, stamping out the selling of indulgences and many other abuses. He believed these problems stemmed from ignorant clergy, so he established many seminaries and instituted Sunday School classes for the laity. May St. Charles continue to intercede in the formation of our seminarians.

As a reminder of our duty to pray for the suffering souls in Purgatory, the Church has dedicated the month of November to the Holy Souls. Let us pray for the deceased priests of our Archdiocese.

Praying for the dead is considered a spiritual work of mercy and prayers for the dead at a cemetery carry special graces and indulgences.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.
