Saint Scholastica

Feast Day: February 10

Saint Scholastica, patroness of nuns, and sister of Saint Benedict, founded the women’s branch of the Benedictines. It is said that once a year, she and her brother met to worship and discuss theology. May all discerners be so earnest in their pursuit of a relationship with God, and may they encourage each other to do the same.

The Holy Family that lived a hidden life of solitude and prayer during Our Lord’s childhood years in Nazareth is the perfect model of all families. The mutual and perfect love they shared with each other, as well as the accomplishment of their daily tasks in the very presence of God, are ideals that all families should aspire to, especially in this present time and society, which so militate against the family.
