St. Joseph

Daughters of Mercy
Supporting Priests through Prayer

“The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease.” —Pope Saint John Paul II

Saint Margaret Clitherow

Feast Day: March 26

Saint Margaret Clitherow, patroness of converts, was led to the Catholic Church in England during times of great persecution in the 16th century. She harbored fugitive priests, and was therefore martyred on March 25, 1586. May her zeal reach all those whose hearts and minds have been converted to Jesus and those who live their vocations in trying circumstances.

The Feast of the Annunciation is one of the most important in the Church calendar. First, it celebrates the actual Incarnation of Our Savior -- the Word made flesh in the womb of His mother, Mary. Second, it is a principal Marian feast. Full of Grace... that is what the Angel calls Our Lady. To impart grace is proper to God alone, Who is the King of glory, immortal and invisible. To Him only belongs by right of dominion this supernatural good: none but He is its primary dispenser. However, the King of Heaven has willed that His riches should be distributed by a lowly virgin. She intercedes as a Daughter, she commands as a Mother; and at her voice the gifts of Heaven are lavished upon men. It is not therefore for herself only that Mary is full of grace, she is so, on our account as well; and this is the precise meaning of the glorious title with which the voice of the Christian people at large loves to call her: “Mother of divine grace.”
