

2nd SUNDAY OF LENT

Discipleship

KEEPING IT REAL

Transforming our Lives in Lent

Heart of Love

God of mercy and compassion, weave your dream for the world into the fabric of our lives. Remove the scales from our eyes and lift the indifference from our hearts, so that we may see your vision – a new reign of justice and compassion that will transform the earth. Transform our lives, so that we may accomplish your purpose. Make us firm disciples in your love this week. Amen.

Act of Love

“It is good for us to be here.” Let these words be your motto this week. Consider each moment of your day and why it is good to be in that moment. Be transformed by your call to be a disciple of Jesus.

Word of Love

Friends are a wonderful gift in our lives. They are there through thick and thin and in difficult times and joyful times. One such friend is Jesus. He is a friend who never lets us down. So when Jesus' close friends are invited to join him on the mountain top, it was a privilege for them to be there. And what did they get to experience ... Jesus transfigured in all his glory. What an experience!

We too can experience wonderful things with Jesus. The opportunity is in our reach if we continue to live as Jesus' disciples and allow our lives to be transfigured by him. Amazing things happen when we give ourselves over more to Jesus. The challenge is allowing ourselves to realize that “it is good” to be at the mountain top.

Reflection:

What are some of the challenges of being a disciple? How are we growing in our friendship with Jesus?
